“ Charlisa and I met at Mcalisters. During some of my lowest times in life she made sure to make me smile and talk to me about my day. Today I found out she had passed away from the McAlister's ladies. My heart is broken. She was a beautiful ray of sunshine every time I went to get my lunch. She always greeted me with a smile and asked how my dogs were and Petco was doing. I will miss her so much.

Charlisa we go way back and we share a child together and our friendship was always real. I miss you friend and when I came home I came by to see you and we hugged. That's the last memory I have of you being happy and I'm remember that smile. My prayers are for her family and my heart goes out to her children and grandchildren who will miss her. God got another angel and I know you will be looking down on your family and friends . Love you so much BridgetteRogers Daniels.
