

Charlotte Sue Payne

August 24, 1946 - December 3, 2024

Charlotte Sue Payne, a long time Bartlesville resident, died on December 3, 2024, at Forrest Manor in Dewey, Oklahoma at age 78. Charlotte was born August 24, 1946, in Tulsa, Oklahoma, to Helen Blaylock Green and Junior Green. She began school in Tulsa and moved to Nowata, Oklahoma early in life when her parents divorced and Helen married Lee Borneman who adopted Charlotte and her sister Carol Ann. Charlotte had spinal meningitis while in Nowata Elementary School. She graduated from Nowata High School, where she was a cheerleader, in 1964, and then attended Bartlesville Beauty School. Charlotte worked as a hair stylist for over 50 years in her own shop and other shops. She loved motorcycles, art, music, dancing, and her many cats. Charlotte and Stevie Joe "Red Boots" Payne married in Las Vegas, June 3, 1995 and were married 29 years until her death. She was preceded in death by her mother, Helen, adoptive father Lee Borneman, and her sister, Carol Ann Fink of Knoxville, TN, beloved aunt Barbara Blaylock Cooper of Tulsa, cousins Linda Delargy, Larry Golleto, and cousin Tony Golleto who died from AIDS in 1988, and stepson Stephen William Payne. She is survived by Stevie Joe, her niece Kim Ketchings of Knoxville, TN, several cousins, including Jeff Golleto of Norman, OK. Charlotte was a kind and loving woman who hated Donald Trump with every fiber of her being. She was loved by many and will be sorely missed.

Tribute Wall

SS

“ Sharon Stewart lit a candle in memory of Charlotte Sue Payne

Sharon Stewart - January 12, 2025 at 01:56 PM

PC

“ To our long time friend - Thank you for all the years of love and laughter we shared. We love you. The Govett Family

pam christianson - December 11, 2024 at 12:50 PM