“ Not a day goes by that I dont think about the good times we had and how much we laughed and cried together. So much has changed and I wish you were here to meet my husband and baby girl. I know you are watching over me and your family. I love you and Miss you

Tracey Achee (Parkin) - November 03, 2019 at 12:05 AM

“ Chelsea had such a BIG personality that really drew people in. I can't remember talking with her or being around her and not laughing or leaving with a big smile!

I most remember her for her big heart and the compassion that she showed towards those around her that were hurting.

It's been 6 months now and I still miss you. You are loved and missed Chels!

“ Chief and Vicki and Ava,

I cannot imagine the loss and emptiness you must feel. I wish you peace of mind and soul in your quiet moments, memories when you need to relieve the heavy burden, Laugther when your soul feels dark and gloomy and when everyone needs consoling, I wish you the heavenly presents of friends and family. Know that you have an angel, Chelsea, looking down on you and watching over you all.

“ Chelsea was a great teacher when she worked at the daycare my children attend, everyday that I picked up my child she was vibrant and energetic.
Rest in peace.

“ To you Marcus and your wife I offer my prayers that somehow you will someday find peace in your quiet moments and much laughter in recalling those precious moments with your daughter. To Ava, those prayers in overcoming the loss of your precious Mommy. Hold onto those wonderful stories that your grandparents will share with you about their little girl, your Mommy. To Chelsea's siblings, much laughter in those memories of who picked on who the most, who tattled on who the most, who broke whose stuff, etc. Many thoughts and prayers pouring out to you. May your pain subside a little more each day and and gentle memories of Chelsea take over.

“ We are so sorry. I last visited with her and Ava about a month ago. They were sitting on their driveway making chalk pictures on the pavement. Chelsea had a small bowl of citronella burning next to them to keep the mosquitoes away. She was a wonderful person and loving mother. We will miss her.

“Chelsea was such a great friend to me in high school. She was actually the one who encouraged me to try out for select choir with her. It was our freshman year, we had to pick out a little song and come up with our own choreography to it. The song that we tried out to was, “Lord Prepare Me to be a Sanctuary.” Chelsea was the one who mainly thought of all the moves. She loved to sing and dance. Either when she would come over to my house or I would go over to hers she would teach me cheer leading moves. Even though I was not good enough to make it into cheer leading, she would always give me that sense of joy of practicing with her. I’m so grateful to have had her friendship and I will always cherish those memories.

In loving memory of Chelsea
