“ Such a sweet & genuine soul! I am so thankful to have met Chris, Caden & Wendy through their friendship with my dad! I remember spending many nights over at their house! It was always a fun place to go & hangout. It was easy to see how dearly Chris loved Caden. He would run around the house, always playing! Chris always has the biggest smile! I will never forget how goofy this guy was! Him & my dad together reminds me of 2 middle school guys - always cracking the jokes! I am so sad of his passing, but his memories, character & sweet smile will never be forgotten, he is so special! I send my deepest apology to his family, I pray God sends you comfort & peace in knowing that Chris is watching is us all from above! He will be truly missed.

Chris was a very unique person and a very caring man. He would bend over backwards for anyone. You couldn't ask for a better friend. I'll miss his great sense of humor. I was in rehab in a nursing home for ten days back in August. He came and saw me nearly every day and brought me tortilla soup. May God bless his entire family.

“ Dear family and friends, I'm a long time friend and class mate of his, we grew up together sharing very similar interests of Mustangs and Deer Hunting. Chris was a great guy with a big heart we talked frequently and his son Caden was a usual topic and mustangs we're it! Lol Chris loved his family and I could go on and on about that as I will always love you all and honor Chris by staying in touch with his Dad Mike, Caden, Stacy, Mark and extended family as I believe Chris would want this. It's extremely hard to believe he's not a phone call away but, knowing he's a Christian and in Heaven helps knowing we will see him again and that he's at peace. Caden I'd like to help you get a Fox body mustang as this was a big deal to Chris and a frequent discussion we would have on finding one. My most memorable story or time with Chris was our Mustang interest and talks we would share about Mustangs. I truly love you guys Mike & wife, Mark, Stacy Caden and Wendy! Chris I'm sorry your gone and will miss you dearly until we meet again Rest easy buddy love you!
