“ I always thought Aunt Cindy was just such a cool lady. She always saw the humor in things and seemed to take life's shake-ups in stride. I liked having conversations with her because she had interesting thoughts and things to say. I will miss everything about her.

She helped deliver hundreds of babies, here and on the road. She loved music and her kids, including the four legged ones. Lol. She loved her animals right up to the last. I have so many memories I can't write them all down. Hopefully, as I get older, I won't forget about the people gone before me. Rest easy, sister. I will always love you and miss ur smiling face.

“ The most notable thing I can remember about Grandma Cindy was how she would always seem to smile, no matter what else was going on around her. The few times I would attend family get-togethers with my Dad's side of the family, I always went to see her. She always made me feel so welcomed and loved, and that means more to someone like me than words can accurately convey. She was such an absolute joy to be around, and I'm sad that I didn't take more opportunities as they were presented.

I'll miss you, Grandma Cindy. And I love you.

“ I remember the first time I met Aunt Cindy. I was a teenager working at Tuxedo Cafe on Tuxedo Blvd. in Bartlesville. She and Tom came by to eat after bowling and she met me and was so kind, she was a kind hearted person. She was always friendly and wanting to know how you were doing. She's been through a lot over the years but today she's enjoying the peace of Heaven. We'll miss you Cindy. Such a beautiful person.
