“ Brad,
Just want to tell you how sorry I am. C.J. (as I knew her for 60 yrs.) was such a great person. She was in our wedding 57 yrs. ago, as I know my sister Bobbie has conveyed to you. Sorry I could not be at the service today, but I had some medical tests and could not drive today. I will miss being able to surprise her when I come to B'ville occasionally.

“ Brad, we bought our first home, here in Parsons, from your mom and dad; 1220 Morgan. Sure enjoyed that home for over 21 years. Your mom was my older sisters Matron of Honor in 1955. Your mom was a wonderful person and will be missed by so many folks. I remember, so many years ago, when Jim had surgery and was a patient at Jane Phillips Hospital, your mom visited us and put me at ease as Jim was recovering. Our prayers are with you and your family.

“ Brad was so sorry to hear about the passing of your mother. Loretta and I kept in touch with your mom at Christmas ever since we left B-ville back in 75. She was a special lady and a good friend and neighbor.
