“ Dewayne was a Great Man. Not many men deserve that title anymore. Dewayne lived it. My father met Dewayne through Phillips. Dewayne and Carol soon became my babysitters when I was an infant and again in my preschool days. I have such great memories of playing with Lincoln Logs on the floor of his clock workshop while he repaired beautiful cuckoo clocks and whittled dogwood flowers out of a chunk of wood. He would take me fishing, buy me baseball cards and tell me about his days in the Navy. My family would frequently travel to Branson, MO for vacation and 6/10 times run into Carol and Dewayne at the same campground. A couple times we even found ourselves camped next door to eachother. I'm 33yrs old now, living in Dallas, and I still remember his home phone number. I would call him and Carol periodically throughout my life. I could stop by unannounced while visiting home from college and they would welcome me in with arms wide open. It was always a joy to here Dewayne say, "Well hello James!" with a big smile on his face. My wife was fortunate enough to meet them both before our wedding. They made her feel just as though they had known her for years. Dewayne was a great example of a Great Man. We, his family and friends, were, rather ARE blessed for having known Dewayne. I miss and love you Dewayne! Tell Carol I love her and can't wait to see you again!

“ Dear ones, DeWayne and Carol were so precious to Bill and me. We got acquainted with them when we needed some clock work. Carol was an amazing lady - after retirement she really enjoyed her intricate fillet work imbroiderery. Mr. Myers came to our clocks' rescue many times. we used to enjoy seeing them dining @ Luby's when they still had restaurant here in Bartlesville. He was so proud of his sons - the artistic talents, etc. Always gave us a history and show & tell tour in their precious home on Virginia Ave, every time we'd come to bring a clock to his capable hands and inhome shop! We admired his unwavering Christian faith. Will miss him ALOT on this side of heaven! love to you who may read this! Joanne Estes, a major member of the Myers'

“ Dear Sir,

Your son Gary is a friend of mine. He held you in highest regard and loved you with all he was and he misses you dearly. You raised him right and I know you're proud of him. Since you've safely made it to the other side "of the Jordan," I'm sure you've mentioned the needs of your kids and family to the Lord. Good to know you're with your wife again, Sir. You've left a fine legacy. Sincerely, Jerry Crump
