“ A fine man, he will be greatly missed. He was dearly loved by all the "Tulsa Berry clan". I remember his guitar playing and singing, among his many other talents of using his hands. He was Creative, Strong, Quiet, Reserved, yet Bold in many ways. You couldn't help but love Clay!

“ Lou, you know Jimmy and I will never forget our evening at your home in Wilson with the bonfire and Jimmy had his "moment"!!!! We still laugh about that.
