

Cleo M. Lowen

April 10, 1933 - October 21, 2019

Cleo M. Lowen, 86, passed away Monday, October 21, 2019 at the Journey Home. Cleo was born April 10, 1933 in Jackson Township, Washington County, Oklahoma to Martin and Ala Mae (Reed) Lowen. He made his home in the Bartlesville area working at Zinc for many years before retiring and moving to Dewey for the last 20 years.

Cleo absolutely loved his family and living in the country. He loved bluegrass music and traveled often to those festivals. He enjoyed growing his vegetable gardens every year and had quite a green thumb. Cleo enjoyed watching the cows and the birds and was happy to see hay season coming. He adored all his family and felt extremely blessed to get to see them all grow. He could often be caught speaking proudly of all of them.

He is preceded in death by his mother; father; two brothers, James and Phyletus Lowen; three sisters, Nancy McClintock, Rosalie Polk and Louisa Cooper; wife, Peggy (Horton) Lowen and their children, Randy and Theresa Lowen, Second wife Peggy King and third wife, Della (Atteberry) Tate Lowen.

He is survived by grandchildren, Donnie and Christy Tate of Dewey, and Nathan and Shelly Tate of Bartlesville; great grandchildren, Natalie Tate and Martin Scott of Spavinaw; also, sister, Mary Rushing of San Antonio, TX and Renada Puente of Bartlesville and many more “adopted” loved ones.

Graveside service will be at 2:00pm Friday, October 25, 2019 at Memorial Park Cemetery with Reverend Willard Lyons officiating.
