“ Mike (Michael J) I am so sorry for your loss. Your mother was a beautiful lady and I always loved being around her. I actually stopped and visited with your parents a few years ago when I was in town. They hadn't changed a bit. I rang the doorbell and when she answered I asked her if she knew who I was. She said, "no, and whatever your selling, I don't want any". Troy was at the table and said, "let her in, she's cute". (cracked me up) When I told her who I was, she said "well, hockey puck, you get in here". I think she called me that because I used to say that a lot instead of swearing. She pulled out the photo albums and told me all about you and your family and Jerry and his family. We joked about you being blessed with all girls. Very found memories of her. Your family is in my thoughts.

“ Those of us from Bartlesville know what a great place it was to grow up, not so much because of the town itself, but because of the people in it. Cloma was a big part of that for me since she was Mom to two of my childhood friends, Mike & Jerry Peace. I'll always remember her fun-loving spirit and good nature. I don't recall any occasion in their home when I didn't feel welcome or Cloma wasn't in a good mood, though I suspect Mike & Jerry may have been on the receiving end of some less-than-cheerful discipline once in a while. Cloma, and her husband Troy, both had a positive influence in my life for which I will always be grateful. My deepest sympathies to Troy, Mike, Jerry, and the entire Peace family. -- Tom Bearer

I share Tom's feelings, Cloma was such a nice lady, I always enjoyed visiting with her and Troy when "hanging out" at their house after being out and about with Mike. Other great memories include so many that are baseball related - all the time spent at Price Field and Col-Hi/Injuns games, as those were truly family affairs (boys and parents) where so much time was spent together. Cloma was very involved in all of that, and she was a joy to be around. Thoughts and prayers are with Troy, Mike and Jerry.

I am so sorry to hear about Cloma. She is my cousin and I have always felt she was so sweet and special. I remember years ago when you got married and would visit at the Lacy's. Monroe and Nat were my aunt and uncle. Nat was sister to my mom Judy Allen. I know she is loved and well be dearly missed. May God bless you all during your loss. Sending my Sympathy and prayers.
