“ I miss you, I miss your voice and your laughter. Thanks for everything you taught me and shared while you were with us..and everything your still teaching me now that your gone. I love you.

“ It's been a long time since I saw this face but I sure hoped I would see it again. The first time I saw this cat, I was in the cafeteria eating lunch all by myself and he came and talked to me because he knew my mom from James' store. I ended up laughing so hard I shot broccoli out of my nose. I have very fond memories of getting into trouble on lunch breaks and going back to class smelling like cigarettes. I'll remember how he always called me n Lacey loud. Corey was like the big brother I never had. I feel so sad for the hurt his family is going through. God bless them in their time of loss.
