“ I posted something yesterday on here but for some reason it didn't show up. I'm so sorry I wasn't able to attend the services yesterday. I unexpectedly had to take a grandson to the doctor.

Jennica and family I'm so sorry you lost Dale so young. Jennica I know you'll miss her horrible. My dad died at 59, my mom at 69. To young, we're not done needing them. Dale was such a sweet person just like her sister Kay. They'd do anything for anybody. I still have a picture hanging in my bedroom that Dale gave me. She said it reminded her of my son Josh. It was a picture of a little boy praying.

I want you to imagine with me if you can what's happening in heaven right now. Kay, Steve, and all those loved ones there came to greet Dale at the gate. Oh what joy to be reunited. I bet Kay was so excited to show Dale all the splendors of heaven. I bet they swam in the river of life first to wash off all the garbage of this life. As they came out of the water they were clothed in the glory of God's light and dressed in white. They gazed at the splendor of streets of gold, gates of pearl, and walls of jasper as Kay led Dale to see the one she truly wanted to see, Jesus. The one that came and died to reunite us with our father God and make it possible for heaven to be our eternal home. They ran to Jesus and Dale jumped in his loving arms and wept as his love swept over her soul. With Jesus on one side and Kay on the other they led Dale to her mansion that they had prepared for her. As she set in this beautiful place experiencing all the things she only longed for on earth she began to think of you with such great excitement. She jumped to her feet and began to prepare for the great family reunion she would have when all of you are reunited again.

The day is drawing close when Jesus will come to take his bride, (the church), us home. We must be ready and help as many as we can be ready. While Dale and Kay are getting things ready there we must be getting things ready here. We must be ready to love the lost for Jesus. To ask them to invite Jesus into their lives so heaven will be their eternal home as well. We will usher in the King of Kings and the Lord of Lords. We must be ready and take as many with us as we can.

I love you all and my prayers are with you. Call if you need anything. My # is 918-331-5388.

“ From Crazy Colored hair, to my rebelliousness, to watching me do crazy flips and dives at the pool, or me sneaking out and being a Boy as she would say.

No matter what wrong I had done she was always on my side. The last summer I spent in Oklahoma with Her, my Uncle Terry, Jenica, Devon, and Sara Still holds as my favorite summer and time of my life. Though I had dissappeared for many years her and the time with her and her family were always some of my fondests memories growing up, and the time spent with her and my Uncle Terry couldnt be replaced. She always made it clear I wasnt just her nephew, I was one of her children and that love couldn't have been more clear. I Love you and you will always have a place in my mind and heart Aunt Dale.

“ Mom how I miss you so much. We talked everyday if, not every other day. I'll miss your sweet text messages telling me to stay warm and drive safe to work. You had the best soul and a heart made out of gold. Shelby and Steven will for sure miss MeMe!! Mom you taught me many things in life, except how to get through life without you. I want you to come back so, I can hear your voice one more time. One thing I want you to know mom my mind still talks to you, my heart still looks for you but, I know you are at peace. You was the best mom! I cant wait to see you again! I love you mom my heart is broken in a million pieces. xoxox

My deepest condolences to the Gaines family, Dale was a beautiful soul, and one of the kindest people I have ever met. My heart goes out to each of the children and grand children, as well as for Terry Jo. The world is going to be a much dimmer place with out Dale's, smile and wonderful nature to light it up.
