

Danny Clifford Blunk

July 20, 1947 - February 2, 2024

Danny Clifford Blunk, 76 of Independence, KS passed away Friday, February 2, 2024, in Independence, KS.

Born on July 20, 1947, in Trona, California to Boyd and Lucy (Reeves) Blunk. Danny graduated High School and carried on to receive his Associate's Degree at Bryant Institute in Tulsa, OK.

On June 11, 1973, Dany married the love of his life, Diana Kay Francis Blunk, and the two began to build a great life and family with their three wonderful sons.

Before his marriage, Danny served his country proudly in Vietnam from 1966-1968. Danny made a career at Safeway Technical Programming Service of Tulsa as a Clerk and Computer programmer.

Through many accomplishments in his life, Danny qualified for The Purple Heart but graciously declined it. His greatest milestones in life were when his sons were born and he got to enjoy the fulfillment of being a father. In his life, Danny had several hobbies and interests but none stood out greater than his passion for the outdoors, hunting and fishing.

Preceding Danny in death are both his parents, Boyd and Lucy Blunk; his sister, Janet, and brother, Sandy.

Danny is survived by his lovely wife of the home, Diana; and sons, Howard, Charles, and Christopher (Tina); Grandson, Brayton; Great-granddaughter, Maela; and two step-granddaughters, Shania and Tiana.
