“ Dave was present at my baptism, and served as my youth minister during my adolescence. His smile and laughter were contagious. He was always quick with a joke, and was so fun to be around. He was a beautiful light in this world, and that light will continue to shine on in those whose lives he touched throughout his. Sending you peace and love during this time of loss. 💜

David's passing has impacted all of those who've known and loved him, especially his family. Long before he devoted his life to the ministry in the Church of Christ, he gave himself to the service of Jesus, spreading His word and saving souls. Our family deeply mourns his passing and will miss him always. Shirley, Shawn, Amy and the Williams family will miss him most & we pray they can find comfort in God's love. I missed David's early years because I was engaged in the military but, on returning, Dave was always upbeat and loved to have fun, much like our mother. I remember going to visit when he was 12 & he was so proud of the giant, flat chocolate chip cookie spread over the entire baking sheet. He thought that was the greatest chocolate chip cookie ever. He was an optimist with a corny sense of humor...always entertaining.

The loss of Heather carried a deep, sharp pain to David and Heather's families, but they are all together now so David can give his family strength, love and blessings in the light of the Lord. Don

“ As I sit here tears rolling down my face, memories racing through my head of how many times Dave touched the lives of my family. From teaching my son to be a good Christian from the time he was born and started Sunshine School to helping my Mother grow in her walk with the Lord. To sitting with my mom laughing as she planned her own funeral and being at her house saying a prayer as she took her last breath. Dave forever changed our lives! My heart and prayers go out to Shirley and the family. He will be greatly missed here on this earth but we will meet again.

“ I send my love and sympathy to Shirley, Shawn, Amy and all the family. Dave was a servant of God and his love of God and people showed on his face and in his smile and in everything he did. He was my minister, my brother in Christ and my friend. He buried my parents, my daughter, my husband, extended family and friends. He taught my daughters and grandchildren at Osage Christian Camp. He counseled me in my losses and cheered me more times than I can count. He will be profoundly missed by me, my family and many, many more. I know without a doubt, he was always prepared to go meet his Lord and see Heather again so Heaven is a little brighter today. But our world will be a little less bright without him. Thank you Dave for being my friend. May God lift up the family and friends and comfort them.

Dave led me in a Bible study when I was 16, and it was largely because of him that I became a Christian. He was also who baptized me. He has no doubt had a profoundly positive influence on many young people through the years, as well as people of ALL ages from all walks of life. This world lost one of the best...

I met Dave and Shirley and the kiddos back years ago when I was an Admissions Counselor at Oklahoma Christian University. Bartlesville was one my places to recruit. A lot of kids came to OC. I always loved going there cause I knew I would get to fishing with Dave. I was always invited to dinner at their home. His smile, his laughter, his simple love for Life was absolutely contagious. He was a Brother, a Friend, a Hero, and a Mentor. Not many people have a person like that in their lives. The Hammonds' are a true American, Christian Family. Dave was the real deal. Dave touched countless lives. A true Servant in the Faith. A Leader in the Church of Christ, and the Community. Dave's last text to me was simply, "Love you too. Give me a call sometime soon so we can catch up." No one could not be around Dave and not love him. He brought many people to Jesus Christ. And now it is Dave's turn to sit with the Lord alongside Heather. That is what Faith is all about! Shirley, Shawn, and Amy I know your hearts are heavy but there are Christian's all over the World, lifting your names to the Father! May our Prayer is we all can one day sit with the Father and "catch up with each other" for all Eternity! Dave Hammonds a True Servant of Jesus Christ! Now that is Legacy! Love you Brother!
