You have no business even pretending to love my brother he begged you cried for you and you denied him now you dare try lying or acting as though you have any love for him PSH your most of the fault he is gone maybe you should have listened to his voicemail after he passed all you did was hurt him are his exact words

Ashley you have no respect for my dad if you can talk to his sister like that my aunt vidia ment so much to him and if he really loved you he wouldn't have planned to go back to my mom and from what I hear you where apart of my dad's death and if that is really true you ripped my dad from me and my sister at a very young age

Jaqulyn Henry - September 02, 2024 at 03:40 PM

And you should never talk about his sister or his mom Like that, if he ever heard what you had just said or, saw what you just said he would never forgive you. From reading what I just read, you have disrespected him in so many different ways

Jaqulyn Henry - September 02, 2024 at 03:43 PM

And if you were really my mom's friend, You would have never gotten with my dad when they were trying to figure things out
