

David Marcus Tyner

May 10, 1961 - February 19, 2019

David Marcus Tyner, 57, of Dewey, Oklahoma, died unexpectedly on Tuesday, February 19, 2019.

David was born May 10, 1961 in Bartlesville, Oklahoma to parents Roy Alfred and Wasa Lee (Rogers) Tyner. He graduated from Dewey High school and received his bachelor's degree in history from Northeastern State University. David worked as a teacher at the Nowata Public School.

He loved native dancing and was even a dancing instructor for Operation Eagle. He was a sweat hobo and was also a huge Sooner fan! David was a founding member of the Dog Pound at the Delaware Indian Pow-Wow in Copan, Oklahoma, member of the Peoria Tribe, Cherokee Tribe and the Absentee Shawnee Tribe.

He loved his family! He made a huge impact of many people, sons, daughters, nieces, nephews and grandchildren.

He is survived by his three sisters Lenora, Lilly and Lisa and two brothers Mike and Dwight.

David was preceded in death by his parents.

Graveside services will be held Friday, February 22, 2019 at 10:00 am at the Peoria Tribal Cemetery in Miami, Oklahoma.

“ David is and was a great person! Not a day would go by, that he would tease me about being short. He would always call me shorty, or short stuff! Great sense of humor! I always enjoyed watching him dance at the pow wow. Love you David!!
