“ David was a special kind hearted person and so caring. No matter the life struggles he went through he always had a word of encouragement for everyone and a prayer in his heart. He was a Christian and loved the Lord with all his heart. Family was everything to David. He loved his wife, sons and Grandsons with his entire being as well as Aunts, Uncles and his cousins. He saw the good in everyone when others didn't. Losing him is the hardest thing we have ever gone through, but we have peace with it because we know he's with his Lord. We do have our own image of David, Butch, Beverly and Becky being typical cousins and their Grandma Vaughan scolding them while my Mom is talking to him in her loving sweet voice and saying "now you kids behave" I'm sure God is okay with a few shenanigans from ornery cousins at David's homecoming to his Heavenly home. I pray that I become more like my beloved son
