“ I was one of Debbie's many students, class of 2007. She was a wonderful person and a great friend. She will be missed by many. I hold my memories of our friendship close to my heart and pray that we will meet again one day in Heaven. Love and prayers to all who are left behind. God Bless,
Shannon Williams

“ Debbie and I met in 1986 at a Women's Aglow meeting in Thomaston, GA. We became instant friends. When I needed a place to live the following year, she let me stay with her and Daniel. Debbie spent Many Thanksgiving's with Marion (my husband) and I - I think about 5 in a row. We moved again and lost touch for a few years, but reconnected during a very difficult time in her life. We have stayed in touch ever since. No one could ask for a better friend. Debbie used to call me her sister because she never had one. We indeed felt that way. When her mother passed not long ago we spent hours on the phone, and then when her little dog passed unexpectedly not long afterwards, it was the same. I was not aware that she had become ill a couple of weeks ago. On the day she died, I was cleaning out a drawer and came across a little box that said, "Friends Forever" that she gave me the year before last for Christmas and said a prayer for her. When I learned of her passing just a few minutes ago, I realized it was at that time when reminiscing that she moved to Heaven. I miss you my friend, but look forward to being with you again. No more heart-ache, sweet lady; no more heart-ache!
