

Deepa Mukerji

August 15, 1935 - March 9, 2019

Deepa Mukerji, 83, of Chino Hills, California, passed away Saturday, March 9, 2019 at her daughter's home in Bartlesville, Oklahoma.

Deepa was born August 15, 1935 to parents Bijoyendu Bhusan and Sailobala (Chatterji) Banerji in Allahabad, India.

She attended St. Mary's Convent (High School) and received her Bachelor of Arts from Allahabad University.

She married Anadi Mukerji on May 7, 1955, and spent over 35 years in Burnpur, India as a homemaker who also volunteered for several social organizations.

Deepa had an uncanny ability to remember birthdays, anniversaries and other milestones of all family members and she invariably tried to contact them to wish them on their special days. She had a large circle of friends and remained very active in social networking.

She was an avid reader and loved to listen to music and watch movies. She also loved traveling and was a frequent international traveler.

Deepa migrated to the United States in 2009 and settled in Chino Hills with her son's family but spent a lot of time with her daughters and their families as well.

She is survived by her three children, son Ananta and wife Kumkum; daughter Rupali and husband Manoj Ghosh and daughter Mitali and husband Sovan Banerjee; 4 grandchildren Ria, Roby, Shayoni and Archisha; 2 elder brothers Arun and Tapan of Kolkata, India.

Services will be held Tuesday, March 12, 2019 at 10:00 am at Stumpff Funeral Home Chapel with cremation to follow.

For those interested, in lieu of flowers, please consider making a donation in Deepa Mukerji's memory to Bharat Sevashram Sangha - West (BSSW), an international charitable and spiritual organization, located at 5600 Carbon Canyon Road, Brea CA 92823, that works alongside with Red Cross and others in disaster relief operations worldwide, along with numerous other charitable endeavors. Checks may be made out to BSSW and mailed to their address listed above. Those in India may make a donation to (BSS) Bharat Sevashram Sangha center in your city.
