She loved her children, grandchildren and great grandchildren. Betty and she spent many joyful hours together, and she noted that Betty took good care of her mother. John and Della lived happily on their ranch for fifty-one years until John's death in 2015.

Della was a member of New Harmony Baptist Church all her life. She started attending at age seven. She recalled running across the road to the church on Sunday's when she was young. Her pride and joy was teaching the junior girls in Sunday school and working in the two week Bible schools. She loved the Lord and tried to serve Him all her life.

She is survived by her daughter, Betty Deen of Bartlesville, Oklahoma whom she lived with her final two years; her son Dale Deen of Honolulu, Hawaii; her daughter-in-law Mary Deen of Henderson, Nevada; five grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren. Della faced many struggles in her life but never doubted God's faithfulness and guidance in her life. She is known for always saying she was never alone because "God is right here beside me." To honor her great love of the Lord, the family asks that in lieu of flowers, donations be made to her cherished New Harmony Baptist Church as they continue to share God's love and promises with others.
