

Delores Kay Davis

October 27, 1950 - April 7, 2025

Delores Kay Davis, age 74, graduated to her eternal home early Monday, April 7, 2025.

Kay, as she was affectionately known, was born to Joyce Marie (Kester) and Fred Leland Blevins on October 27, 1950 in Bartlesville.

Kay married the love of her life, William "Bill" Robert Davis Sr. on September 27, 1977. They made their home in Nowata, Oklahoma. Kay assisted Bill in all of his business endeavors through the years by driving trucks and tractors, picking up parts, and tending to the home. Bill and Kay often shared stories of all of their children, and nieces and nephews that came to stay and/or work on the farm. Kay enjoyed vacationing with her sister, Judy, visiting many celebrity sites. Later in life, she loved watching and cooking for her grandchildren.

Kay is survived by her four children: Greg Haas and wife Tana of Nowata, Jeff Davis and wife Shannon of Jenks, William Robert Davis Jr. and wife Jamie of Claremore, and only daughter Kimberly Long and husband John of Nowata.

Kay is survived by her 16 grandchildren and 9 great grandchildren with another expected soon. Additionally, she is survived by her sister, Judy McDonald, brother Jimmy Blevins and wife Judy.

Kay was preceded in death by her mother, Joyce Blevins, her father Fred Blevins, her brother Freddie Blevins and her loving husband, Bill Davis.

Kay will be greatly missed by those that loved her.
