Diann Cynthia (Thompson) Diamond, 66, of Bartlesville, Oklahoma, died Saturday, November 16, 2019, where she passed quietly in her sleep.

Diann was born November 30, 1952 to parents Daniel Curtis Thompson and Michelle Underhill in San Francisco, California.

In 1986 she with her husband moved to the Raleigh-Durham area to establish a building/development company known as Green Country Development Corporation of which she was an officer and part owner. She retired in 2006 in Chapel Hill N.C. Where she still owns a home. She then for some years traveled to many places around the world that she wanted to see. But three years ago she moved to somewhere she had always wanted to live Bartlesville, Oklahoma. She was very happy here. Her favorite hobby was shopping.

She is survived by her husband Mike, of the home; mother Michelle

Clevenger; sister Laura Thornbrugh; niece Kennedy Link, of the home and numerous nieces and nephews.

“ Our hearts are broken. For forty years Diann was my travel & shopping buddy. Oh, we did shop the world! From the Straw Market in Nassau, Bahamas to the Champ-Elysees in Paris, France, we shopped! Watching Diann shop was poetry in motion, she was one with her art! We had 3 Transatlantic crossings together with our husbands, but it wasn't enough. I will always feel cheated that we didn't have more time. Diann was also the ultimate hostess, opening her & Mike's home in Chapel Hill, North Carolina & Emerald Isle, to their condo in Las Vegas for many years, always making sure we were comfortable. We shared a birthday, which I will never be able to celebrate again without a sadness in my heart. Mike & Dianns love was obvious to everyone around them. They adored each other. Love never ends. Rest well my dear friend, until we can see each again. Nancy Yarbrough
