“ Please forgive my major embarrassing error typing Bob instead of Don. My sincere apologies. I knew his name I think if he was here he would laugh along with me not at me. At any rate my words and fondness are genuine. Dale Woolery-Gaines

“ My heartfelt sadness is with Connie and the whole Family. As a little girl Bob and Connie were so kind to me. I remember him as a big handsome strong man who did not take nonsense. I always respected him and Connie. The love they shared could not only be seen, but felt in spirit. At the time one of my sister's was married to Rick Feeler so there was always a connection. I grew up with Joe he looks so much like his Father in this picture and that is a very high compliment. He always called me the little blue eyed Indian girl down the street. The last time I visited Bob and Connie he was feeling very sick and at least now he is not in pain. I will never forget him. I hope to see him on the other side when it is my time. Love & Prayers, Dale Woolery-Gaines
