“ Donna took a special effort to make us feel a part of the family. I think we blended together rather well. I see her mannerisms reflected in her children and her grandchildren. She was a great lady.

“ Donna Sue was a most wonderful person in all ways; a loving Christian, devoted mother and wife, excellent teacher, loyal friend, storyteller and humorist. She impacted me first as a teaching mentor and then as an example of how to live a meaningful life. I cherish all the funny and sweet moments we shared in years past. My love and sympathy to the Jones family. I will always remember her laugh and her heart for others. She was truly one of a kind.

“ Jack & family: I just got the news concerning Donna's passing. When I think of her, I smile & can hear her laugh. What a genuine force of nature she was! When I first came to teach at Marrs she took me under her wing & guided me in the right direction. I told everyone that it was like teaching next door to Carol Burnett. We laughed our way through each day and managed to follow our lesson plans at the same time I'll never forget her kindness, her story-telling, and her quirky expressions. She was one in a million, that's for sure.
