She graduated from Phillipsburg Kansas High School in 1951 and began working for Southwestern Bell Telephone in 1958. On September 5, 1969, Dorothy and Corbin were united in marriage in Claremore, Oklahoma. She was a very giving lady and after retirement in 1987, she devoted countless hours in the mission field traveling to South America and Mexico. While there, she would give away nativity sets and baby blankets to churches and the less fortunate. Dorothy loved her family and would even do without things to make sure they were provided for. She enjoyed cooking, canning vegetables, making ceramic figures and baby blankets, and caring for her dogs. Dorothy was an inspiration to many and will be greatly missed.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Eldon and Margaret Newell.

Dorothy is survived by her husband of forty-three years, Corbin Newman, of the home; four children, Corbin Newman Jr. and his wife, Erin, of Albuquerque, New Mexico, Kathy Cox and her husband, Russell, of Mesa, Arizona, Mike Newman and his wife, Cindy, of Thorton, Colorado, LeAnne Anderegg of Bartlesville, Oklahoma; ten grandchildren; numerous great-grandchildren and friends.

“ I guess I should add, LeeAnn and I were maybe 10 or 11 years old, maybe younger, when we had the fireplace incident. Dorothy and Corbin always welcomed me.

“ My sincere condolences to Corbin, LeeAnn and Kathy. Dorothy was a wonderful lady, she didn't mind at all when Corbin found that we had shut the damper on the fireplace and smoked up the house!
