

Dorothy Jean Parker

February 24, 1953 - September 15, 2025

Dorothy Jean (DJ) Parker, 72, of Bartlesville, Oklahoma, passed away peacefully on September 15, 2025, at St. Francis Hospital.

Born in Blackwell, Oklahoma, to William D. and Dorothy J. Parker, DJ lived a life defined by love, dedication, and joy. After earning her Master's degree in Education and Psychology from Oklahoma State University, she built a remarkable career, serving as Vice President of Operations for TESCORG for more than 20 years, where she was highly respected for her leadership and accomplishments.

On February 16, 2001, she married the love of her life, Fred Potter. Together, they shared years of happiness until his passing. DJ had a zest for life and many passions. She loved collecting show cars and proudly attended — and often won — car shows with her beloved 1970 Mach 1. She found peace in her garden, joy in the company of her boxers puppies, and magic in creating her annual “Christmas explosion,” a holiday tradition cherished by all of the family.

She was preceded in death by her parents, William and Dorothy Parker; her brother, David Parker; and her husband, Fred Potter. She is survived by her daughters, Renee Johnson and husband Steven; Chelsea Migliaro and husband Michael, and her three grandchildren, Teagan Johnson, and Josephine, and Delcie Migliaro, and sister Patricia Wright and her son Eddie Wright, who will forever treasure her love and guidance.

A memorial service will be held on Friday, September 26, 2025, at 2:00 p.m. at Stumpff Funeral Home in Bartlesville, Oklahoma. Interment will follow at Memorial Park Cemetery in Bartlesville, with a reception of lite snacks and refreshments at East Cross Methodist Church.

DJ will always be remembered for her warmth, humor, and the joy she brought to everyone fortunate enough to know her.

“ I remember the day I bought that 1970 Mustang Mach1, didn't have time to drive it home from the car show. D J drove it to Tescorp for me and promptly informed me she did a good burnout in the parking lot. Little did I know that I would sell it to her when I moved to Houston. I still have a picture it parked under the Tescorp sign. D J, Vince and I had many fun and crazy times over the years. We were always there for each other. Although we worked together at Tescorp, our personal friendship of over 45 years is something I will always cherish. Rest in peace my dear friend.

“ I met DJ through my association with Vince Thomas at Tescorp. Both Vince and I had the good sense to be fired from the same company.

Vince was the engineer, innovator and spark plug. DJ was the planner, administrator and financier. She could wring consensus from a shouting match.

She and Vince had a special relationship. Once he called her and asked her to bring him $10,000.00. He described the car that he wanted to buy in glowing detail. He was pleased when she brought him the money, until she informed him the car was no longer for sale. She had bought it!

One time, when Vince left for a trip, DJ renovated his office. She even installed New Orleans style vertical fans. Their collaboration on an exceptional company break area garnered a newspaper article. It had a relaxed 1950s theme.

DJ was an inspired, pragmatic problem solver. A customer was on their way to inspect a vacuum pump before taking delivery. Just before they arrived, a mechanical seal began to leak oil. DJ's quick fix was jaw dropping and successful.

The trade shows in Liberal, KS, were special. Before going to "Happy Hour" DJ would ask Vince, "Who do you want me to talk to and what do you want to know." She could stop conversations when she walked into a room. I watched her do it.

Rest in peace, DJ. We will miss your intelligence, wit, charm and drive. Thanks for the memories.
