“ I don't even know where to start but Duane was such a great friend and co-worker for many years. We had done so many things together and gone lot's of places together. Hey he and his family were just part of my Family.

Just so many great memories from all the years!

May you rest in Peace Duane.

“ Duane and I use to live just down the road from each other, I lived on Interurban drive and I would go to his house and pick him up in my black 50 ford and he would ride to school with. When in hi school I also delivered the Bartlesville paper to Duane's mom and dad. He will be missed.
