Edith Carolyn Clark, affectionately known as “MeMe,” passed away on October 25, 2025, in Skiatook, Oklahoma, leaving behind a legacy of love and laughter that will forever be cherished by those who were fortunate enough to know her. Born on February 2, 1942, in McAllen, Texas, Edith's life was a tapestry woven with threads of humor, warmth, and unwavering love.

On May 8, 1972, Edith embarked on a journey of love and companionship with her beloved husband, Michael Ray Clark, sharing 45 beautiful years together. Their union was a testament to enduring love and partnership, creating a foundation of strength and support for their family.

Edith was a beacon of light in the lives of all who knew her. Her candid nature, genuine spirit, and spicy personality were cherished by many, and her endearing gullibility brought joy and laughter to countless moments. A devoted mother, Edith's greatest joy was found in her family. She leaves behind a lasting impact on her sons, Bradley Furlong and wife Michelle, Keith Furlong and wife Michelle, and Michael Clark, who will forever carry forward her values of love, compassion, and resilience.

In addition to her sons, Edith is survived by her 8 grandchildren and 17 great-grandchildren, who were the apple of her eye and the source of endless pride and joy. Each generation touched by Edith's love will continue to be guided by her wisdom, kindness, and the enduring lessons she imparted through her words and actions.

Though Edith led a simple life, her sincerity, spirit, and unwavering love left a mark on all who had the privilege of knowing her. Her presence was a source of comfort, her laughter a precious gift, and her memory will forever be a beacon of light in the hearts of those who loved her. Edith Carolyn Clark, “MeMe,” will be deeply missed but fondly remembered for the love and joy she brought into the lives of all who knew her.
