“ The McCauley's were our neighbors growing up in Barnsdall. Several times with my crazy family chaos, Freda & I were their “foster children”. I'm very thankful for the girls (Beth & Paula) taking us home with them and pleading our case with Bill & Judy to let us stay at their house. I can't remember ever being turned away or not being feed. There was always room at their house even if it was a pallet on the living floor. My best memories with Beth (& Paula)... We learned how to pick blackberries in the summer and not get snake bite. The best reward was eating Judy's homemade Blackberry Cobbler (and ice cream) until we puked AND the blanket “tents” in the front yard! In the fall picking up pecans and going to the Burrow's house to feed the cattle. I have great respect for Beth as a loyal friend that would defend you against any odds. As we got older and I moved away we lost contact. But I will always be grateful for you and your family. God bless your family at this difficult time.

“ I was so sorry to hear of Beth's passing. She was one of the most upbeat persons I know and she always had a funny story to tell. She will remain forever in my memories!

Prior plans had already been made to go to Dallas next week to visit my older sister, Sylvia, which means that I will be unable to attend the funeral. Billie and Gail, may the love of God surround you and lift you up during the coming days without your mom. She is rejoicing in her heavenly home! I'll be thinking of you, Frankie, and your families.

“ Beth was such a sweet and fun loving person. I enjoyed having her in class, where she was a good student and one who could liven discussion with her humorous take on any subject. In recent times I met her at the post office many afternoons. One day she said “Why don't you buy the newspaper?” My response: “Whatever in the world for?” “So I can have something worth reading,” she quipped. We parted in gales of giggles. Loved Beth and will miss her.
