“ Eric- I miss you. I always cherished your friendship and I wish that I would have told you more often. I wish that I would have kept in better touch but I thought there would always come a day that I would see you again. There is so much that I want to say....but all that I can manage right now is this..you will always be loved and you will never be forgotten. Until we meet again....

“ I still cant believe your gone. No more stories & funny articles on facebook to share. Always was like a brother to me since I was friends with your sister. How proud I was of your accomplishments & far u went coming from small town Elk City. You will always be missed but always with a smile when I look back at all the memories I have of you.

“ If tears could build a stairwell and memories were a lane, I would walk right up to Heaven and bring you home again. No farewell words were spoken no time to say good-bye . You were gone before I knew it, and only God knows why. My heart still aches in sadness, and secret tears still flow. What it means to lose you, no one will ever know. Anonymous~
