“ As a kid, my family nearly always lived close to Uncle Frank and his family. I developed the woolerygenealogy.com website. I cherish the fond memories of Uncle Frank and Aunt Beulah going with me for about a week to visit and photograph the graves of deceased Woolery family members throughout Oklahoma and Missouri. May they rest in peace.

“ Of the few childhood memories I have Grandpa Franks are the strongest. I remember being out on the lake checking lines for catfish, driving the boat and seeing nap with his faithful chihuahua Fatty. He always asked me what channel he could watch wrestling on and was ever the prankster. Watching him and dad try to put pepper in their drinks, shoes tied in knots, butter in their shoes. It was always quite the scene.

“ My favorite memories of Grandpa are from my childhood when we would visit and travel with Grandma visiting family and researching our family history. I remember Grandpa and my Dad had to climb through a pig pin to get to our family grave site to collect the names of our family that had passed away. We also loved watching WWF and watching Grandpa eating popcorn while he slept lol fun times. I'm happy you are reunited with Grandma Rest In Peace till we meet again.

“ Frank was my father-in-law. He always tried to make me feel like family. Dad was a supporting man. I remember many trips back to visit mom and dad. Dad always has tomatoes ready for us to make him salsa. My most precious memory of dad, was sitting on the porch talking together. Dad has always given me support, love and good advice. I will truly miss him. Rest in peace dad.

“ I remember when i was a boy, daddy taught us how to run a trout line. I remember catching lots of fish and getting sun burned. It was a wonderful daddy, son afternoon.
