“ If there is one thing I was looking forward to on my visit to Oklahoma it was seeing you and giving my kids and husband the opportunity to know what an amazing person you are. Now I regret not making it in time. It may have been awhile since I saw you, but as I child I loved you being around more than anything. You will be missed as I still think about you so often. Rest in Peace Uncle Gary and I pray to see you one day on the other side. Give my dad and brother hugs from me and I will see you when I make it there.
