“ For many years Georgia prepared the luncheon for the monthly NFY (Not Finished Yet) activity. The meals were always well thought out and delicious. I was privileged to work in the kitchen with Georgia many times.

Georgia and Andy shared an apartment with Quinton and me on several trips to York College for Roundup. I could always count on Georgia to bring along the necessary things for any situation that might come up.

After we moved from Bartlesville, Georgia and Andy opened their home to us (and often our friends) for many an overnight stay prior to our travels to York. We always appreciated their warm hospitality.

Georgia's servant heart led her to help so many people over the years. We all were blessed to have her in our lives.

Georgia was such a giving, servant hearted lady. So hospitable, kind and loving. She was truly a mentor for many of us. So glad she has received her reward!
