

Glen Ivan Bounds

September 16, 1939 - July 2, 2023

Let it be joyfully known that Glen Ivan Bounds lived a life of faith in Jesus and service to others and entered the arms of his Savior and his heavenly rest on July 2, 2023. He was the husband of the late Dana Kaye Bounds; father of Brent Bounds and Candis Bounds Grover; father-in-law of Jenni Bounds and Dennis Grover; grandfather of Griffin, Wyatt, and Sawyer Bounds and Amity, Vivien, and Edie Grover; son of the late Ivan and Edna Bounds; brother of the late Charles Bounds, Joyce Archer, Linda Bloom, and Rita Belding and brother-in-law to the late Laverne Bounds, John Bloom, Bill Belding and Keith Hunter; uncle to Brian Hunter, the late Steve Bounds, Delwin Archer, Karen Adolphus, Vonda Carney, Sherri Morrison, Terry Bloom, DeAnn Dean, Mark Bloom, and Damon Belding.

Glen was born in Bastrop, Louisiana on September 16 , 1939. He graduated from Bastrop High School and went on to obtain a Bachelor of Science degree from Northwestern State University of Louisiana and a Master of Science degree and Doctor of Education degree from East Texas State University. Beginning as a biology teacher in Mesquite ISD, then a biochemical specialist in industry, he found a home at the Dallas County Community College District where he worked on the faculty and administration of several campuses and concluded his almost 37 year tenure as the founding provost of the Bill J. Priest Institute for Economic Development.

His marriage of 59 years to Kaye began on August 9, 1963 in Pryor, Oklahoma. Glen and Kaye faithfully served their family, their church and their neighbors in every community they lived. Glen strove to be a servant-leader in all of his roles and he especially delighted in being a father and grandfather. He enjoyed traveling, had a green thumb for growing beautiful landscapes, and had a heart for nurturing and training horses and dogs.

We gather to honor and celebrate Glen's life and to remind one another that we do not grieve as those who do not have hope.

Visitation will be from 5-6pm on Friday, July 7 at Stumpff Funeral Home. A graveside service will be held at 11am on Saturday, July 8 at Graham Memorial Cemetery in Pryor, Oklahoma. A memorial service will be held at Hope Presbyterian Church in Bartlesville, Oklahoma at 4:00 pm on Saturday, July 8.

Memorial donations may be made to Pine Cove Christian Camps (<https://www.pinecove.com/donate/>)

“ I am so grateful I was with my precious brother when Jesus tenderly took him home! I will miss him tremendously but I'm so thankful he now has a healthy mind, a new body, and is reunited with Kaye and a host of family and friends!

These pictures are the way I want to remember Glen and Kaye. Relaxed with the newspaper and a cup of coffee, this photo was taken in my home in 2015. The one of Glen, Kaye, John, and me was taken in August of 2022.

“ I simply can't talk about Uncle Glen without including Aunt Kaye. They were inseparable. A shining example of "two becoming one" before Almighty God.

God used Uncle Glen and Aunt Kaye to fill in a lot of gaps for me.

I will forever be grateful, first and foremost, for God's Holy Spirit continually living in and through them as they humbly yielded to His Lordship.

God empowered them to serve Jesus by serving others of us in a disciplined, consistent way, and at a high level that only a few people I have known in my 64 years have come remotely close to attaining.

Four of those folks were their parents, Ivan & Edna Bounds and Cosby & Pixie Hughes.

Uncle Glen and Aunt Kaye have now faithfully passed the torch of faith in Jesus. Their children's families are right on track to continue their incredible legacy.

I'm mighty proud to claim all of 'em!

All glory to God for lives well lived in service to our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. For His is the Kingdom, the power and the glory forever and ever. Amen!.

“ Remember Glen this morning. He was strong in his faith as a Christian and was a hero in my eyes. He taught me so much about God and loving others. I will miss him and Kaye forever. I can't believe they are actually gone. Loved them dearly. Willie Barbour

We will miss Glens wise counsel! His boldness as he witnessed for Christ by being in anyone's presence! He was a model wife, father, brother, uncle, and grandad. We love you and will see you again! ❤️
