“ My Dad's baby sister, where do I start?!? It was you that prepared him and gave him the necessary tools to be an amazing Dad to his little girls. I have so many fond memories of the times we spent together for the holidays and all the days in between all the sleepovers, the camping trips, the bazillion visits to the kiddie park, Frontier City, and that damn pool in Bartlesville with the 50M diving board. I'll always be grateful for you giving me the courage to jump and jump again until I found the courage within myself. You always poured a tremendous amount of love into every member of our family and I'll always be grateful to and for you!! Without a doubt your great nephew was there to welcome his Aunt Gwendel to the Kingdom where you'll now be at peace ... peace that you so richly deserve.

Dana, Chad, and Bradi - know that I am thinking of each of you and holding space for you until you are able to see in color again.
