“ You will never know how you changed my life. I truly believe you were sent to me by the man upstairs himself. The way we met was not under the best of circumstances I apologize for that. I was young and had really got myself in a pickle, well more than a pickle i was in a bad situation. You seen me at my worst i was so very low and lost i trusted the wrong person and boy was I paying for it, I remember sitting across from you with my head hung in shame telling you just how I had got myself in the situation. There was no judgmental stares from you or hateful words you just sat there and listened as I finished you said I'm taking your case. I think we both knew that one another truly was a good person. You gave me the strength to stand up to my co defendant and testify against him you never left my side. You even took myself and brother to eat bbq, which he totally embarrassed me its like he had never ate we were both shocked and impressed i think. You sang I'm blue laddie da ladie da and the day of court you had been in a play and the black spray they sprayed your hair with was running down. We had a good laugh about that ! You also shared with me the love you had for your family. I knew you were a amazing person but reading your Obituary proved it. I was blessed to have met you I will never forget you. Oh and I never did get in trouble again and I never took the Blame for anyone again either It has been 24 years. I have to admit tho I cried knowing the world lost such a good soul. May you rest in peace

“ Glenn is the reason I am a lawyer. I was fortunate enough to spend several summers working along side Glenn and the others at his office. He genuinely respected each and every person he encountered. Glenn would strike up a conversation with anyone in the room and I will always cherish his lightheartedness. Linda & Ashley, you three were quite the trio. Tracy, we never met, but I heard so much about you. My heart goes out to each of you. He will be missed.

“ I grew up with Glenn as a second father in Bartlesville. I will never forget his love for life, the arts and keeping up with my little brother on all things Nintendo. I will always remember him dressed as a woman in the Nutcracker! Such a wonderful memory and showed what a guy he truly was. Glenn will be greatly missed. Ash, Tracie and Linda, I 'm thinking about you ladies who also have a huge place in my heart and praying. Love you all very much.

“ I worked with Glenn before we hired him to join the Marine/tanker Department at Phillips. After Glenn joined Phillips I traveled with him a lot. He was always a gentlemen and a very knowledgeable Maritime attorney. I had the opportunity to talk to him a couple of times since I moved back to Batrlrsville. Our thoughts and prayers are with the family.
