

Gloris Anna Burgan

January 25, 1935 - March 6, 2023

Gloris Anna Burgan passed away on Monday, March 6, 2023, at the age of 88. She was born to James Baker and Mattie Wilburn on January 25, 1935, in Harlen County, Kentucky.

Gloris attended high school in Coldiron, Kentucky, but spent her working years tending to her children and grandchildren. In those two roles, she was a nurse, teacher, homemaker, and creator. She loved and cared deeply for all of her children and grandchildren. On July 30, 1952, she married Charles Burgan. Gloris loved to travel. She especially loved the mountains.

She was preceded in death her parents, by one sister, Opal Taylor, three brothers, Clifford Baker, Kenneth Baker and Leo Baker, one daughter, Charmain Devitto, two sons, Roger Dale Burgan and Charles Edgar Burgan Jr, two granddaughters, Tiffany Albers and Ashley Burgan, one grandson Raymond Roger Burgan and one great grandson, Brett E Phillips II.

Gloris is survived by her husband, Charles Burgan; sister, Verda Barham; six sons, Bob Burgan, David Burgan, Don and Dee Burgan, Tommy and Lori Burgan, Kenny and Dana Burgan, and Eric Burgan; five daughters, Gloria and Jay Albers, Kathy Kilgore and Tim Gilbert, Netha Allen, Yvonne and Ed House, and Tammy Farley; twenty-nine grandchildren; and thirty-one great-grandchildren.

The memorial service will be held on Friday, March 10, 2023, at Highland Park Baptist Church at 10:00 AM followed by a graveside service at Dewey Cemetery at 12:00 PM.
