

Heather Lynn Swalley-Kimball

November 22, 1994 - January 9, 2021

Heather Lynn Kimball, 26, of Nowata, passed away Saturday, January 9, 2021.

Heather was born November 22, 1994, in Bartlesville, to mother Rebecca Lynn Swalley-Benners. She graduated high school at Oklahoma Union in 2013. Heather then completed schooling at Tri County Tech and received her phlebotomist license.

She loved going hunting, working out and being with her family, especially her son, sister and nephews and friends. Heather was a wonderful mother and loved her son, Bentley, with all of her heart and soul. She would say that being his mother was her biggest accomplishment in life. She was baptized on April 29, 2019 at City Church. She loved God and her life!

Heather was preceded in death by her maternal great grandparents, JR and Vena West of Delaware.

She is survived by her son, Bentley James; mother Rebecca and step-father Dani Benners; sister Brittany and husband Jacob Patton; grandparents Deborah and Larry Parrish; nephews Gabriel and Michael Patton; Aunt Jennifer and husband Lee Tevebaugh; Uncle Alan and wife Lori West; very special people Steven Tatum, Gabrielle and Dalton Hoppock and Brent Kimball and many, many more friends.

Friends may visit Friday, January 15 from 2-8pm at Stumpff-Nowata Funeral Home.

A celebration of Heather's life will be held on Friday, January 22 at 2pm at

New Life Assembly of God Church at 126 N Maple in Nowata.

“ I will forever cherish the fun we had at Gabby's bachelorette party. From the ride in the van, McDonald's trip and Hurts Donuts. Your laugh and smile was contagious and made us all laugh even more. You had a heart of gold and I am so thankful of having you a part of our life. Rest in peace girl you will be missed by so many. Love ya Samantha
