

Heather Gay Rainbolt

January 29, 1965 - February 9, 2012

Heather G. Rainbolt, 47, former resident of Bartlesville, died Thursday, February 9, 2012 in Mankato, Kansas.

Funeral services will be held at 10:00 AM on Wednesday, February 15, 2012 at the East Cross United Methodist Church with Rev. Jeff Burress and Rev. Willard Lyons officiating. Services are under the direction of the Stumpff Funeral Home & Crematory.

A memorial has been established and donations can be sent to the Boys and Girls Club of Bartlesville, 401 S. Seminole Avenue, Bartlesville, Oklahoma 74003 in lieu of flowers.

Heather was born on January 29, 1965 to Marvin D. Rainbolt and Mary Leveta (Thrash) Rainbolt in Pampa, Texas. She grew up and received her early education at Pampa, Texas, Kansas City and Woodward, Oklahoma graduating high school there in 1982. Heather later attended Bartlesville Wesleyan College graduating with a Bachelor's Degree in Social Science. She made her home in Bartlesville for most her working life and was employed by the Department of Human Services as a social worker until January of 2011 when she moved to Jewell, Kansas where she worked as Activities Director and Social Services Director for Jewell County Hospital in Mankato, Kansas. Heather was a former member of the Central Baptist Church at Pampa, Texas. Heather's hobbies were fishing, camping and enjoyed being outdoors. She loved working with young people, the elderly and soaking up her grandbabies.

She is survived by her mother Mary Rainbolt of Bartlesville, two sons; Jason Walker and Heath Deaton both of Bartlesville, two sisters; Mrs. Tamara Fulton and husband James of Manhattan, Kansas and Mrs. Kelley Lawrence and husband Randy of Bartlesville. Her three grandchildren are Hanna Reese Walker, Hayden Lane Walker and Emma Victoria Brooke Walker all of Bartlesville. She also is survived by her companion Tim Davis of Jewell, Kansas and her Boxer puppy Norman. She was preceded in death by her father Marvin D. Rainbolt on June 17, 2008.
