“ I met JR when I was in the third grade, the first time I stayed the night with Casey and from that day on I was an extra member of that family. He couldn't get rid of me lol! I stayed countless nights out there on the hill, where we always had fun and I was always welcome. He did have to rip into us from time to time, which was well-deserved I'm sure 😭 JR, and his home was a big part of my childhood, and I've loved him into adulthood. JR you will be greatly missed and forever loved.
