

Ildemaro de Jesus Atencio

February 3, 1942 - August 26, 2018

Ildemaro de Jesús Atencio González was born on November 3rd, 1942 in San José de Perijá, Zulia State, Venezuela, where he lived most of his life. He grew up surrounded by loved ones. His late parents Lino Enrique and Maria Jesus Atencio; his sisters Lubina and Ana and brothers Lino Segundo and Orlando. At the age of 27, he married Lubina Carmen Vera, with whom he had two children, Brenda and Ildemaro Junior.

My dad was better known by many as "Maro", although in the family we referred to him as "Abuelo (grandpa)", thus I want to emphasize that he was the best grandfather in the world for his four grandchildren: Brian, Daniel, Sienna and Andrew. He is also affectionately remembered by his nieces, nephews, and other relatives in Venezuela.

Mechanic by profession and friend of all those he knew, an honest and hard-working man, an honorable gentleman who kept his word, always loyal and respectful to his wife and all his family. Willing to help everyone without asking anything in return. A simple and genuine man, one of few words, but with a powerful presence and a sweet smile that inspired confidence. That is my dad.

The most important thing is that Maro knew the Lord Jesus Christ, Jesus changed his life and set an example for all of us around him. During many years he was part of the Puerta de Esperanza Spanish service at First Wesleyan Church, where he was baptized, lately he attended the Spanish Service at First Baptist Church of Bartlesville.
