“ After I married Shelley Brence, almost 31 years ago, we spent our first Thanksgiving together at her folks' house near Seaside. I was all set for the traditional holiday feast of turkey, cranberries, and pumpkin pie. To my surprise and horror, we had a Mexican feast - hot, spicy foods! - because her dad was not a fan of turkey. Nevertheless, I bit my tongue (except to Shelley), and we are still married - and her father and I grew to have a mutual respect. It seems strange not to have him here.

“ Jim & Sharon were like parents to me during high school, thanks to Millie being one of my best friends. Jim was always willing to offer me advice or input that I didn't necessarily want to hear, but needed. He taught me how to work on cars and helped me perfect my sarcastic sass. Most of all, he showed me that unconditional love is possible and essential. Sending all my love to Sharon, Millie and the rest of the family. - Carrie Petersen

“A BIG THANK YOU to all of you who shared your love and condolences with me after the passing of my father on March 29th. It meant a lot to me. I am touched and humbled by the outpouring of good vibes from so many heart-centered people.

Dad and I didn't always see eye to eye. Maybe because we were too much alike.

He was set in his ways and did not waiver once he made up his mind. He was always a hard worker with great conviction to do it right. He had compassion for his fellow man. He was always helping someone that was down on his or her luck. He did not have a lot of riches in this world, but I believe his riches were being laid up in Heaven.

*He was many things to me, Mr. fix-it, teacher, spiritual guide, adviser, and example of how to be a good husband and father. He was there any time I needed.
I will miss him."*

thanks muchly

“ As a young girl of eight I would comb and put Pop's hair up in pigtails and barettes after he came home from work. He was very patient and never upset at his new hairstyle. Shelley
