

James "Jimmy" Richard Harrington

February 9, 1962 - January 31, 2024

James Richard (Jimmy) Harrington was born on 2-9-1962. Judy (Nolan) and Jesse F. Harrington III. He was born and raised in Dewey, graduating from Dewey High School in 1980. His trade was a mechanic/diesel mechanic, - he worked on cars all his life. He worked for the City of Bartlesville, UPS, Maverick and was self-employed. He also built mags for WesMar. Jimmy's passion was racing. Whether it was a Harley, a truck, a Race Car – he always had the need for it to go faster or be louder! He raced at Caney Valley Speedway for several years, in the 90's alongside several friends, (too many to list) but most importantly our dad – Jesse Harrington and Uncle Orville Harrington. Jimmy loved Music..loud music. He liked to ride his Harley, always loved His Dogs, Playing cards, Playing shuffleboard and driving, making his rounds. He liked to watch football, and eat. He enjoyed watching Thunder games with his mom. He always had a big smile for people, was friendly and liked to make people feel better. Jimmy took really good care of his parents, which showed his servants heart. He loved the lord very much and was always encouraging anyone who needed it. Jimmy was never married.

Jimmy is survived by his mom Judy Harrington of Dewey, Sister Lisa Harrington (Dewey) Brother-in-law- Don Swan (Dewey). Nephew and Nieces: Brian and Amy Swan Haley, Hana, Kyle and Kaci, Luke and Heather Cash(ARK) Kade and Kennedy. Leslie Gordineer (Euliss, TX) Emily Theisen,
