

James Henry Johnson

August 9, 1974 - June 14, 2021

James Henry Madison Johnson of Bartlesville, Oklahoma passed away on June 14, 2021, at the young age of 46. James was born to Fred Johnson and Lenna Johnson Owens on August 9, 1974, in Bartlesville.

James attended and graduated from Dewey High School and was known for being a jack of all trades. He was good at everything he did, and there was not a problem he could not fix. He was also co-owner of OD and J Home Improvement. In the summer of 1989, James met his soulmate and on January 11, 1992, he married the love of his life, Allene Johnson Fisher. James loved snorkeling the rivers, playing with his grandchildren, and cooking food for his friends and family.

He is preceded in death by his mother Lenna Johnson and both of his grandparents.

James is survived by his wife Allene Johnson, daughter Bryttanii Johnson of Bartlesville, son Austin Johnson of Barnsdall, seven grandchildren; Johnaven Johnson, SeRynittii Eckert, Aegean Johnson, Jared Johnson, Kenneth Scharnhorst, Elijah Jones, Kaylie Unruh, his father Fred Johnson, sister Norma Johnson, and several nieces, one nephew, many more family members and friends he loved dearly.

A memorial service will be held Saturday, June 26, 2021, at 12:00pm at 103 Johnstone Ave Bartlesville, OK 74003.

“ I remember him the first time he cooked for all of us at my house on Wyandotte he had to go get all new spices I didn't have the kind he used and when he was done cooking it was well worth the delay it was delicious everything was melt in your mouth. You will be missed by anyone that knows you love you will miss you
