“ Mike and my son hung out at times. Mike helped my son quite a bit. If he got stuck Mike was there. Need something hauled, Mike was there.

Mike came over to the house once to see Dillon and he found out I got lunches from the school for the kids. Well, when he found out there was chocolate milk, his hands were out!! Lol I would pack a bag for him and everytime before he left, he'd ask, "could I get a couple cold ones for the road? " Anytime Mike. Any time..❤️

“ Mike was a true friend to me, he was a bull in a china cabinet most of the time but as gentle as a lamb around kids. He was Santa for my grandkids this past Christmas and the light in my 4 yr old grand daughters eyes when he walked in the room was priceless, as she sat on his knee she was gleaming with joy, excitement and love...Santa was real!! I loved Mike dearly for his kindness, generosity and friendship and ill miss him everyday!! I hope he knew what he meant to me!
