“ I met Jimmy and Judy at church. Became friends immediately my best memory of him is one day in spring we were invited over for a bbq he loved talking about the Lord and this song everytime I hear it it reminds me of him. I cant seem to remember it at the moment but we sang it all the time at liberty. My thoughts an prayers goes out to his family ,children an grandchildren.

“ I have known Jimmy all of my life. Every since I can remember he always had a huge smile on his face! I took this picture a couple of years ago when I saw him last. The sun was setting and he kept saying how much he was enjoying the moment in life with the most awesome view. The trees and the sky. He kept saying Wow! That is awesome!

Praying for his friends and family. May the comfort of knowing that the separation is only temporary help you through these difficult days. Love you guys!
