“ My mother was your sister, your mother was my grandmother. That made you my uncle, but we were more like brother and sister! As children, we were inseperable! We would strip the sheets off the bed and the plaid pattern on the mattress became the roads for our cars. We had standing Rule: If I would play cars with you, you would play dolls with me! There was a dip in the sidewalk out front and when it rained the mud would puddle in that dip. We made the best mud pies there! We walked to school and back each day, run to the park down the block, learned to ride bikes, catch the ice cream truck, grandma even threw us in the bathtub for our daily cleaning before bed. I regret e grew apart as adults, but I love you no less! I'll see you soon in that Sweet By and By, when we meet on that beautiful shore!

I remember the first Dr's appt. I took Bobby to, we got to the reception desk and Bobby kinda stumbled and the receptionist told him, Mr. Wallace, if you need to sit down, your wife and sign you in". His eyes got really big and he immediately said " That's not my wife". Lol. 😂😂

“ My brother in law Bobby,...There are so many stories about Bobby I could write forever..He was 12 years old when I married his brother Charles. His hair was long and he always had a laugh...He started working for his brother at 13..cleaning the shop, learning to do things. His bad arm was not a problem for Bobby, He overcame all adversity and could work harder than most people with two arms. I remember Charles bought him a Nova for his 16th birthday..Bobby tore the clutch out of that car every other week.. Then they bought another chevy, Charles rebuilt the motor for him and it was so strong, they had to pull it to get it started. There was ice on the road and Charles was pulling Bobby, when Bobby let the clutch out we looked behind us and all we saw was a car going sideways and Bobby and his friends were screaming...lol...Bobby was a very unique person. He loved his family and his extended family. He knew one day he might not beat the odds, but he did sooo many times..He had Dr's shaking their heads..Bobby, you will always have a place in my heart...You are now enjoying being home with your family..I am sure you Daddy has a hersheys waiting for you...Love you "Bubbe"...

P.S. Give Charles a big hug for me...

I need to add to Dan..Bobby loved you like a brother..You deserve a special place in Heaven..Susie was still Bobby's rock to the end, you supported her and our family thru many trials. You invited Bobby into your home and loved him as your family..Ithank you for that..

“ I remember playing Dirty Santa and taking a OU steering cover away from Bobby during the game. I felt guilty afterwards and ended up buying him one later for his birthday. He was such a wonderful person inside and out. He accepted me as a friend when I married Susie there was no jealousy at all as far as me helping raise his wonderful Daughter and Son Robert and Heather. Bobby fought his life with this horrible disease and perservered longer than anyone ever expected. Although he will be missed by family and loved ones. He has finally found peace from the suffering and now will be laid to rest next to his Father who he lost to this same disease when he was 9 years old along with other family members that have long since departed this earth. I know he will be watching over all of us from above now that he has found peace! I will always treasure all the family gatherings we shared Birthdays holidays and working on all our broke down cars. You will be missed but it was a pleasure to know you as the great Father and person you were. Rest in peace Bobby and thank you for welcoming me into your family!!

Thank you Dan. Thank you for being such a good friend to my dad. You were always there for him and that takes a very strong person to do that.
