

Jamie Luella Kirkpatrick

May 21, 1956 - January 16, 2023

Jamie Luella Kirkpatrick passed to life eternal on Monday, January 16, 2023, in Stillwater, OK. In Oklahoma City, OK, Jamie entered this world on the 21st day of May 1956. A great friend, Doris Abraham, facilitated the introduction that led to the adoption of Jamie into a loving family. The only child of the late Felton Leon and Mabel Ruth Burks, she completed her elementary education in Bartlesville.

In 1974, she received her high school diploma from Ellsworth Air Force Base in Rapid City, South Dakota. She then completed her education with an Associate degree from Northern Oklahoma College and a bachelor's degree (Science) from Southern Nazarene University.

Jamie, married to James Washington from 1973 to 2003, became a devoted and loving mother to her son Brett during this union. After attending modeling school, Jamie enjoyed a lavish one-event modeling career followed by several positions in banks before finding her footing as a dedicated and memorable employee for National Standard and, at the time of her departure, an Assistant Director at Langston University.

Jamie loved writing as much as she loved her Lord. She later lived her life in service. Once a member of Mt. Zion Baptist Church in Stillwater, Jamie continued to praise and worship at Sunnybrook Christian.

In addition to her father and mother, Jamie was preceded in death by her sister Mona Jackson and Doris Abraham.

To cherish her memory, she leaves her only son Brett Washington (Tulsa), three grandchildren: Lance (Oklahoma City), Brody (Tulsa), and Jamie (Tulsa), her siblings: Calvinetta Duke (Oklahoma City) and Jack Irish (Oklahoma City), and a host of nieces, nephews, dear friends and all of the family she has adopted along the way.

“ My sincere sympathy to Jamie’s family and friends. I had the privilege of working with Jamie from her first day at Langston a university until my retirement; however we kept in touch after that. Jamie was a delightful source to be reckoned with, and I so enjoyed working with her. The one thing that was so evident at LU is that the students loved “Miss Jamie,” who worked diligently to help students with their issues and became a great sounding board and resource to them. I will miss Jamie, as will all who knew her.

“ To the family, please accept my prayers and condolences for the loss of your loved one Ms. Jamie (Washington) Kirkpatrick. I worked closely with "Ms. Jamie" as I called her, for over 10 years and I could always count on her, to provide information needed. I admired her patience, and her attention to detail which was so important in the work that we shared. She had a very kind spirit and I am truly going to miss her. I thank God I had the opportunity to work with her, considering her not only a co-worker, but also a friend. RIP Ms. Jamie.

“ To The family of Jamie (Washington) Kirkpatrick, Sending my condolences to you during this difficult time. I can remember working alongside Jamie for more than 13 years at Langston University. We shared a lot of memories together (mostly laughter) because that's what made work enjoyable. Jamie, thank you for being a great friend and I will forever cherish all of our LU memories. To the family I am greatly honored to have been a friend and co-worker with Jamie for more than 15 years. I think of a song titled.. "To God Be The Glory"... In the song it says... "how can I say thanks for the things you have done for me"... I cannot and will not forget all the leadership she provided for the students and staff at Langston University. She will be missed.
