“Jana and all the O’Gara’s and I grew up together living just across the street. What great memories of everything From “red light/green light to mother may I” we all spent many wonderful times together.

I used to play in Bands and we would practice in my garage — Jana would always be there. She and I talked about it just a few months back. She was always vibrant, cute as they come and a fun spirit to be around.

I just found out about her taking her journey tonight, so I am sorry I am late in writing this.

For all my treasured O’Gara friends... my sincere condolences — I will and do already miss her.

With love and prayers,

Chuck Tollefsen

“I first met Jana in 8th grade. She was a cheerleader all through school. Many cheerleaders act like they are better than anyone else, but not Jana. She treated everyone the same. She always greeted me and everyone else with her sweet smile. Her personality was golden. She will be sorely missed, but, I am sure one day, we will meet again. God needed another angel in Heaven. She was a great mother and proud of her precious granddaughter whom she loved dearly. I hope she knew just how much she was loved by everyone. I will hold her dearly in my heart forever. See you later dear friend. Love ya!

“ I met Jana in 3rd grade at McKinley grade school. She was one of the sweetest girls and we were great school friends. I remember her Slumber parties and skating at Roller Haven but the greatest memory is how she would talk and text to me at night and wee hours of the morning when I was caring for my Mom, working and struggling mentally and physically to stay afloat. She kept me going and helped me through my worst time. I am eternally grateful for her friendship and am blessed to have known her and been her friend. Rest In Peace my friend, I love you always.

I first met Jana in Junior High School. Really cannot remember exactly how. We were just all part of a group of friends. I was a cheerleader with her our sophomore year. I can remember riding to games with her. Just like everyone says she was sweet, kind and treated everyone the same. Later reconnected thru Facebook and we would private message. She will be missed. My deepest sympathies. ♡♡

My heart slowed its cadence ever so gently as I read of Jana's transition, I whispered sweet blessings knowing always that her journey is just beginning. . . Godspeed.
