“ Elise, became a dear part of our family celebrations, her and her sister, Leslie, were inseparable.....She just was always "sweet and kind", very soft spoken. I loved to hear her stories about her work and love she had for her clients. My biggest blessing this year was having our names drawn at Christmas, to gift each other. The more I wondered what would be a great gift for her, the closer the Lord endeared her to my heart, I'm very thankful her" forever Christmases", will be singing to Jesus, upfront and personal!
